1956

Mary You Jarrett

A book of memories bursts forth in full bloom . . . of work, fun, teachers and friends—of life at Asheboro that all hold dear. Now,

"The year's at the spring,
And day's at the morn; . . .
God's in His heaven—
All's right with the world!"
For lo! 'tis

Mary Lou,

I have enjoyed knowing you over Freshman year. Remember our good times in Room 201. Most of all remember that wonderful day we won the basketball intramural tournament. May you always have the best of luck.

A friend,

Mary Lou,

I really been fun being with you the last two years. Remember basketball practice and the big day we defeated the Sophomores. Ha! I hope you have the best life could offer to such a girl as you. Be good and God Bless you.

Love ya,
Shelly
Lunting
